

Daniel Charles Potucek died in Washington, D.C. on March 31, 2018. He graduated from Georgetown Prep in 2002 and Duke University in 2006 before attending Harvard Law. He wrote and spoke seven foreign languages and worked as an attorney for the Department of Homeland Security's Transportation Security Administration, in Washington D.C. for the past five years. He is survived by his mother, Lorinda, in Boise, Idaho, and his brother, Joseph, in Long Beach, California.